Biography of Sachin Tendulkar on his early life:

Sachin Tendulkar did his early childhood education at the New English School of the Indian Education Society in Bandra (East). Sachin was very fond of cricket games since his childhood but from the very beginning, he was considered among the very naughty children, due to which he often quarreled with the school children.

Sachin's elder brother Ajit used to encourage him a lot to play cricket, so to reduce Sachin's mischief, Ajit plans a strategy to provides him coaching at a prestigious Cricket Academy which was located at Shivaji Park, Dadar, and took him to Ramakant Achrekar in 1984, Ramakant Achrekar was considered among the experts and famous cricket coaches of that time period.

Sachin was not able to perform well in front of Achrekar for the first time due to which he refused to admit him to the Academy for training but after a lot of requests by Sachin's elder brother Ajit, he examines Sachin's game once again.

But this time he hid from Sachin and observed Sachin's game, and then this time Sachin had played very good cricket which showed that Sachin is only feeling uncomfortable playing in front of him and then Achrekar gave permission to admit him to his cricket academy, and then he started coaching them the skills of the cricket.

Achrekar was very impressed with Tendulkar's talent, so he asked Sachin to shift to Shardashram Vidyamandir International School in Dadar (West), Mumbai to continue his study because cricket was used very much encouraging there and had established many cricketers at the international level. He had observed that if Sachin gets a good atmosphere of cricket then he can do a lot in the cricket game, Tendulkar also took admission to that school at the behest of his coach and started playing cricket there with a professional team, he studied there and also used to practice under the supervision of Achrekar every morning and evening in the academy located in Shivaji Park.

At the school, he developed a reputation as a child cricketer. He had become a common belief in all the local cricket playing areas, that one day he would become one of the greatest cricket players in the world.

Sachin used to participate in the Matunga Gujarati Seva Mandal (MGSM) Championship on behalf of the school team continuously. Apart from school cricket, Sachin used to participate in club cricket there as well.

Later, Achrekar had found a problem that the way he grips the handle of the bat, because Sachin used to grips the handle of his bat quite below, and according to Achrekar that by holding the bat in such a way very good stroke can not drive, and he advised Sachin to play by grips the handle of the bat slightly above side.

Sachin Tendulkar often used to practice at the nets for hours in his childhood and his coach Ramakant Achrekar used to put a ₹ 1 coin on the stumps and the condition was that the bowler who would dismiss Sachin would take this ₹ 1 coin with him and If Sachin has remained not out, then that the coin of ₹ 1 will be taken by himself.

By doing this unique type of practice of batting Sachin has accumulated 13 such coins, which even today, Sachin considers as his biggest award.

Initially, Sachin was very fond of bowling, due to which in 1987, at the age of 14, he went to the MRF Pace Foundation in Chennai to learn bowling tricks where Australian fast bowler Dennis Lillee was the head coach.

He suggested to Sachin to get expertise in batting because he was doing well in batting and then Sachin agreed to him and started paying more attention to his batting.

He was infected with (COVID-19):

On 27 March 2021, Sachin Tendulkar was tested positive for the Coronavirus disease and was admitted to the hospital as a matter of abundant precaution under medical advice

On Thursday 8 April 2021 Due to the good wishes and prayers of millions of fans and followers he has returned home after being hospitalized as a "precautionary measure" for almost 10 days due to Covid-19.

Biography of Sachin Tendulkar on his Domestic career:

On 14 November 1987, Tendulkar was selected to play for Mumbai in India's domestic first-class cricket tournament for the Ranji Trophy but he did not get the place in any of the matches in the final eleven, he was used only just as an extra fielder in that entire series.

On 11 December 1988, at the age of just 15 years and 232 days, Tendulkar made his debut against Gujarat while playing for Mumbai, scoring an unbeaten century in that match and a century in his first match in first-class cricket.

He became the youngest player of India to establish this record, and in the playing season of 1988-89, he became the highest run-scorer for Mumbai in the entire series, and even after that his outstanding performance continued.

He also scored an unbeaten century in the Irani Trophy against Delhi at the time when he was playing for the rest of India. Sachin Tendulkar scored a century in his first match in Ranji Trophy, Duleep Trophy, and Irani Trophy and is the only batsman from India to do so. No one has broken this record to date

Seeing the brilliant cricket of Sachin, at the age of 16, he was selected for the Indian national cricket team. The credit of his selection in the national cricket team is to go to Raj Singh Dungarpur, who was the chief selector of BCCI at that time period.

Biography of Sachin Tendulkar on his international cricket career:

Sachin is the only player in the world who has a world record of scoring 100 centuries in international cricket, in which he has scored 51 centuries in Test cricket and 49 centuries in ODI.

Sachin Tendulkar became the youngest cricketer to debut in Test cricket for India at the age of 16 years and 205 days, as well as the youngest cricketer to debut in ODIs for India at the age of 16 years and 238 days.

Tendulkar made his debut in international cricket at the age of 16 years and 205 days in the Karachi Test match on India's tour of Pakistan in 1989.

in the first test against Pakistan, he was bowled out by Waqar Younis after scoring 15 runs off 24 balls in the first innings and did not get a chance to bat in the second innings.

At the age of about 40 years, Sachin Tendulkar has announced his retirement from all formats of international cricket on 10 October 2013 just after the Test series against West Indies in November in India, and interestingly Sachin has debuted his ODI against Pakistan and his last ODI was also against Pakistan.

Performance in ODI:

Sachin Tendulkar is the player who played the most One Day International cricket matches, he has played a total of 463 ODIs in his entire cricket career.

He has scored a total of 18426 runs in his entire ODI cricket career at an average of 44.83 at a strike rate of 86. 24, which means he has scored 86 runs off the facing per100 balls in every match, and he has scored approximately 45 runs on an average in each & every match in all the ODI he has played, which is really very amazing and remarkable.

Performance in Test:

Sachin Tendulkar is also the only cricketer to have played the most number of Test matches on his home grounds. there is no other cricketer in the world who has played more Test matches than Sachin Tendulkar at his own country's grounds.

In the fourth and final Test match in Jinnah Stadium of Sialkot Pakistan which was played 09 to 14 December 1989, a bouncer ball hit on Sachin Tendulkar's nose and started bleeding from his nose, but this little master kept on batting without worrying about his nose pain.

But after that, he has cracked the world's most notorious bowlers whether it is Shane Warne or Muralitharan, or Shoaib Akhtar, and many more...whose figures are telling the story of his strength in the batting records.

Sachin played his first home Test match against England in India 1992–93, which was the 22nd Test match of his Test career. After this, Sachin's performance in the Test matches of Australia and South Africa was very tremendous and he had also scored many Test centuries there.

He has played the most Test matches in international cricket, has played a total of 200 Test matches in his entire career, out of which he has played 94 Test matches at his home ground ie India. Here is a brief list of all the 200 Test matches whom he was played in his entire cricket career.
